

□

F E S T S C H R I F T

Honoring the Very Reverend Professor
PAUL NADIM TARAZI

Saturday, October 23, 2010
St. George Antiochian Orthodox Church
Little Falls, New Jersey

CALL FOR PAPERS

The steering committee of the unit “Bible in the Eastern and Oriental Orthodox Traditions” of the Society of Biblical Literature (SBL) is happy to announce a “Call for Papers” for a Festschrift to honor the Very Reverend Dr. Paul N. Tarazi, Professor of Biblical Studies at St Vladimir's Orthodox Theological Seminary in Crestwood, New York.

The Festschrift will include an academic conference organized on the occasion of the fortieth anniversary of Professor Tarazi's teaching career. Through his ministry as an ordained priest of the Antiochian Orthodox Church, his four decades of teaching, and his many publications, Professor Tarazi has become an icon of biblical scholarship in the Orthodox churches around the world.

The day-long conference will take place on Saturday, October 23, 2010 at the St. George Antiochian Orthodox Church in Little Falls, New Jersey, under the auspices of His Eminence Archbishop Philip Saliba, Metropolitan of the Antiochian Orthodox Christian Archdiocese of North America.

Scholars are welcome to submit proposals for papers in the field of Fr. Paul's research—the Bible and related subjects—to be considered for delivery on the day of the symposium or for inclusion in the published volume of the Festschrift. A select number of the papers presented for the Festschrift volume will be read during the symposium.

The deadline for submitting a proposal for a paper is January 15, 2010, at the latest. To submit a proposal or for further information please contact: Dr. Vahan Hovhanessian at: vartabed@stnersess.edu.

###